Judge Steven Timm Named 2008 Presiding Judge of County Court's First Judicial District

Judge Steven B. Timm has been named County Court Presiding Judge of the 1st Judicial District (Gage, Jefferson, Johnson, Nemaha, Pawnee, Richardson, Saline, and Thayer Counties). The Nebraska Supreme Court approved the nomination of Judge Timm, whose name was submitted by his fellow county court judges for the leadership position.

Judge Timm has served on the county court bench in Beatrice since 1980. He is an active member of the Nebraska County Judges Association where he has served on various committees including a term as president of the organization. An active participant in legal and judicial education, Judge Timm has often been called upon to teach seminars on topics such as criminal procedure, new legislation and trial practice. Judge Timm is the 2004 recipient of the prestigious Chief Justices' Distinguished Judge for Service to the Judiciary award for his leadership and extensive work in the areas of education and legislation.

As presiding judge, Judge Timm has primary responsibility for overseeing the delivery of county court services within his judicial district. He will also serve as the liaison to other agencies of local and state government for the courts of the district and to the Nebraska State Bar Association and the press.

Presiding judges also bear the responsibility for overseeing personnel matters for the district and provide county courts in the area with direction in matters of local district policy.
